Governor's feelings in regard to cotillions and other light amusements! I am sorry to say, that super-excellent personage does not practice upon his beautiful theory. Our citizens were thunder struck, a day or two since, by the editorial anphraseology-had condescended to visit the Amphitheatre on the occasion of the benefit of the "Poor Indians." Will the Governor allow me to suggest to him the propriety of turning to his Dutch Bible, and carefully reading the passage recorded in Matthew, VII., 3,4,5? Yours, &c. WATCH-TOWER.

LEGISLATIVE SCENE .- An altercation took place in the Tennessee Legislature on the 17th instant, between a Mr. T- and a Mr. Miller, ending in a fight, which was finally terminated by several members interfering and separating the combatants.

Appointments by the Governor,
By and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

JANUARY 27, 1844.

RENSSELAER.—Stephen Reynolds, Jr., Surrogate, vice Corns. L. Tracy—term expires 30th Jan.

IMPORTANT FROM SANTA FE .- A letter from Santa Fe, received by a gentleman in St. Louis, a few days since, states that in the early part of November last there was quite a mutiny of the Mexican soldiers of that city, in the public square in front of the Governor's Palace. It was immediately quelled, however, by the Governor in person, with 50 soldiers and a 12 pounder shotted and pointed towards the mutineers, the match being lighted .-Only two were killed and three wounded in the affair. A rumor had just reached the capital, that Armijo had been removed and a new Governor was within 200 miles of the city.

SATURDAY.

SUPERIOR COURT Before Chief Justice Jones. and Judges Oakley and Vanderpoel.

DECISIONS.

The People, ex rel Wm. Gilmore vs. Abraham Green .- Application to amerce a witness for damages for not attending to a summons. The Court stated that it must be shown that a witness had been duly called, and failed to appear, on which instant proceedings must be had if it is intended to hold him for contempt. In this case such had not been done, yet the witness put in an answer, and thereby admitted the contempt. He is therefore liable in such penalty as the Court may deem to be proper within the Statute. His absence does not appear to have been caused by disregard to the process. Ordered, that defendant be discharged on paying

Michael O' Connor, executor of John Pye, deceased vs. Aaron Addins and others .- Case of appeal from the Marine Court. The defendants in error were builders and carpenters, and erected an inner flight of stairs on a house belonging to deecased in the 12th Ward. They brought action to recover $56.55. The executor claimed that Mr. Oakley had the contract to erect the house, and that Messrs, Addins and Hawkins should have been paid by him. The Court, in its decision, stated that the Justice below gave verdict for Messrs. Addins & Co., and the case was brought up on certiorari. The idea of non-existence of partnership was not urged below, and comes too late. The objection in the lower Court that 'Messrs. Pye (the son) and Knight (son-in-law of dec'd) were interested witnesses was not denied, and therefore tacitly admitted. A witness has stated that he worked a day on the stairs for A. & H., and that they paid him. Judgment af-

George E. B. Leofe ads Wm. W. Snowden .-The Justice in the Court below allowed a judgment of nonsuit at half past 11 o'clock, when he had adjourned the case to 12, but forgotten the circumstance. Judgment reversed.

Frere Edy vs. Wm. L. Simers .- Case of appeal from Assistant Justice French. The bill was for $44, for schooling of Mr. Simers's children, and judgment was given in favor of plaintiff. It was appealed on three grounds: 1st, that short summons was issued without taking security. 2d, that Robbins, the marshal who served the summons, acted as counsel for plaintiff, and was disqualified for such, and the plaintiff not personally appearing wss out of Court, and should have been nonsuited; and, 3d, the oill was in the name of Me. Yet

To the first point, (security) the Court considered that it To the first point, (security) the Court considered that it had been waved, and the objection comes too late. As to the 2d, Marshals are not prohibited in the city of New York from acting as counsel, that prohibition extends only to the country; and as related to the 3d, it was shown to have been a mere error in transcribing the bill. As to the amount day, it was at one time admitted, and the Justice below settled that.—Judgment affirmed.

Clinton Roosevelt vs. John N. Taylor .- Appeal m a replevin suit, (Shaggot vs. Lasak,) amounting to $50 .for $50 and $57 55 taxed costs. Taylor and Roosevelt disagreed and separated. The amount of verdict and costs was paid by defendant's Attorney (Boyart) to Taylor, who offered to Roosevelt $7, which was half the costs to the time of separating. This was refused and action brought. The Court below allowed judgment, including one half a counsel fee to Taylor, on the ground that the business came to the office, and appeal is made. This Court, in rendering a decision, said that such agreements as that between the part of the country of the property of the state of the country of the countr been held a violation of law, and should be frowned down.— We think that the Court below, in giving plaintiff one-half the receipts of Taylor, including Counsel fees of $25, went beyond its powers, because, at the furthest, he could only have half the costs. Judgment reversed.

Eramet Rusk vs. Samuel W. D. Cook .- Appeal from Justice 5th, 8th and 15th Wards Court. Rusk sued look for the value of a barrel of molasses which was on the side walk, with others, in front of his store, struck by the cart of plaintiff, and the contents lost. The defendant showed by witnesses that the molasses was within 4 inches of he ed. of the curb stone, and so near that the barrel coul strack with the hub of the wheel without its going on the k. He contended that in turning his cart, the hub the barrel and destroyed it. The Justice below gave to defendant, from which appeal was made. Judg-

Joseph Mitchell vs. Joseph Rottger and ney .- Appeal from the Marine Court .- It was an action of trover to recover $100, being for clothing and bed and bedding, said to have been forcibly detained by defendants, in the house at which Mitchell had boarded. The Court below a lowel Tort because it said defend ints were in possess on of the goods, and no evidence is shown how they came by them, and it assumed that the value was $100, also that no pre-1005 brilliant fetes of the season, as we were satisfied it would be. The company was very large, and bright eyes grew brighter as the music of the band sent the dancers whirling through the dance. The room was, nouncement in the Argus, that Gov. Bouck had by the art of the upholsterer, converted into a Turk-"condescended"—yes, that was the Democratic ish tent, and was embellished by Smith, of the Park Theatre, with views of Turkish and Moorish scenery and history. Among them is a copy of the famous painting of the battle between Richard and Saladin, which does great credit to the painter. Among the guests we noticed members of the Independent Cadets and New-England Guards of Boston, the Providence Light Infantry, and of the Brooklyn and Philadelphia companies. The scarlet uniform of the Guard, their soldierly bearing, and their attention to the ladies and their guests, was marked of all, and was the admiration of all. The supper was in Niblo's best style, and, of course, was profuse and delicate. The reputation of the Soirée of 1843 was amply maintained by the Soirée of 1844, and we mark the evening of January 24th, with a white stone, in our memory.

In consequence of the refusal of the Tonawanda Indians to allow the survey of their lands by the Ogden Land Company, it is down flat .-The Secretary of War has informed the Company that Government cannot interfere to enforce the contracts between it and the Indians.

FATAL RENCONTRE AT HARRISBURG, PA .- A slip from the office of the Harrisburg Chronicle, dated January 26, gives the following account of the tragical death of Mr. Prince, of that city :-

For some weeks past a difficulty has existed between Mr. Joseph R. Prince, a merchant, and Mr. Thomas R. H. Loud, attorney at law. It appears that Mr. P. had entrusted Mr. L. with some egal business, which was transacted by the latter; but on their settlement, a serious dispute occurred between them, and they separated after a lengthy and angry conversation. This was about two weeks since, and the subsequent endeavors of mutual friends to adjust the difficulty proved unavailing.

This morning, at about 11 o'clock, the parties met near the corner of Third and Walnut streotsand Mr. Prince enquired of Mr. Loud as to the truth of certain derogatory language which he (Mr. P.) had understood Mr.L. had made respecting him. The latter denied his right to question him, and was about to move on, when Mr. P.; who was armed with a heavy walking stick, caught him by the collar and applied his cane to the shoulders of Mr. L. Before he had struck the third blow, Mr. Loud drew a double barreled pistol, took deliberate aim, and fired! Both balls entered the body of his antagonist, just below the left breast, causing instant

A large crowd was soon collected, and the now lifeless corpse of the unfortunate man was conveyed to his home, which was near the spot. An eyewitness informs us that the scene witnessed on reaching his home, was truly harrowing, and alas! we can too easily credit it. Mr. Loud immediately gave himself up, and is now undergoing an examination. Commercial and Money Matters,

For sales at the Stock Exchange, &c. see Last Page. The sales at the Board to-day were large, and prices generally improved. The operators appear to be better supplied with facilities, and every thing was buoyant.

Exchanges are without change, and in fair demand. The supply is not very large. Sterling is $8\frac{3}{4}$ a 9; Francs 5 $32\frac{1}{2}$ a 5 30. We have some statements to make to-morrow in relation to the decision of the Chancellor of Mississippi in the case of the Vicksburg Bank which will be important to all interested in the stock of that A bill has been introduced into the House of Obio and passed the first reading, authorising the business of banking, very similar to the Free Banking act of this State. The issues are to be based on Ohio stocks. We have seen letters from Columbus stating that it will no doubt pass the House, and that it is doubtful if the Senate will dare to defeat it. the credit of the State of Obio, asserted that the power given the Auditor by law to levy a tax of payment of the interest on the State sebt was too much for one man to possess, and by inference asserted that this power would not be continued to him, and that the people of Ohio would not long continue to bear the onerous burden of taxation. This matter has now been set at rest by a unanimous vote of the House, which has refused to change the law of the State requiring the Auditor to levy annually such sum as may be required to pay the interest on the public debt. The pledged faith of the State is thus sustained to the letter by every member of the popular branch of the Legislature of Ohio. Repudiation never had a footing in Ohio, and after this vote he must be a bold and hardened man who ventures to put forth any new proposition looking to repudiation. The Fulton Bank of this city, the charter of which expires in March next, will be reorganized under the Free Banking law.

At Charleston there have been some sales of Charleston Bank, old, at $100; Union 48; Planters' & Mechanics' 29; S W Rail road 58. Exchanges had a downward ten-

The lead trade of the Upper Mississippi is getting to be of immense importance, and is growing more valuable every year. The demand for the metal is only limited by the price, and if it could be carried at a cheaper rate we might supply the whole world from the laboratory of nature in the region of the Upper Mississippi. The shipments from all the points in that region in 1841 were, pigs.

This with the addition of 25,142 pigs stopped by the ice makes an increased production in 1813 of 140,174 pigs. There were in addition 1400 pigs copper mined, and the increase in this article also bids fair to be very large. The aggregate value of both metals at the mines exceeded $1,000,000. MERCANTILE AGENCY.

McRCANTILE, AGENCY.

No. 4 Dorr's Building.

The attention of the merchants in this city, who sell into the country on credit, is invited to this Agency. Upward of two hundred individuals and firms are now enrolled as subscribers. The object of the Agency is to procure accurate information, in a legitimate way, about the standing, responsibility, &c., of country merchants residing in the States of New-York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, the New England States, New Jersey, parts of Missouri and Pennsylvania, and the Territories of Iowa and Wisconsin, and keep it constantly revised, for the benefit of the merchants of this city who are subscribers to the Agency. Local and traveling Agents are employed to the benefit of the merchants of this city who are subscribers to the Agency. Local and traveling Agents are employed to gain the necessary information—men of experience, good judgement, and good character. Experience has shown that the Mercantile Agency—as condected—has been highly useful, not only to the merchants in this city who are subscribers, but to honest and solvent merchants in the country, and that it is only the fraudulent and ill-disposed who have occasion to object to it. Among the subscribers are many of the principal dealers in Dry Goods, Groceriea, Hardware, Crockery, Drugs and Medicines, &c.

The terms—which are reasonable and invariable—will be made known to applicants at the office.

made known to applicants at the office.

Any merchant, who wishes to test the value of the information can do so gratuitously. No better way has been thought of than for such to bring a first of the bad debts they have made since the establishment of the Agency in 1841, and ascertain how the debtors stood on the books of the Agercy when the geods were sold to them. The names of good Collecting Attorneys will be given, gra

IMPORTANT ENTERPRISE!

In consequence of the extrao dinary popularity an large demand for copies in the original, the publisher of THE NEW WORLD, at the suggestion, and in compliance with the wishes of many French gentlemen, has determined to

A FRENCH EDITION OF THE MYSTERIES OF PARIS. TO BE COMPLETED IN EIGHT PARTS, AT 25 CENTS EACH, UNDER THE CRITICAL SUPERINTENDENCE

PROFESSOR C. P. BORDENAVE. The Paris edition, from which we reprint, cannot be had i this country for less than TWELVE DOLLARS, which places it entirely beyond the means of the great body of French residents, as well as as of the large numbers of Ame ricans and others who read the French tongue. In New York alone there are over 30,000 French residents; and to say nothing of the State of Louisiana and the British province of Lower Canada, almost entirely populated by Frenchmen and their descendants there are thousands who read or speak the lar guage as native; and the publisher cannot permit hamself to doubt that the present enterprise will meet with the favor and support of the French residents throughout the Union, as well as of the thousands of English, German, and Americans, who are conversant with the French language. We give Prof. Bordenave's Card, certif ing to the correctness of this edi ion.

denave's Card, certif ing to the correctness of this edition.

"A CARD.

"I have read four proofs of each and every page of the New World edition of The Mysteries of Paris, in French, with great case; and I hereby certify that the edition is literally correct. I have not only corrected the errors of the press in the present but those which occurred in the best original Paris edition from which this has been copied. This is, therefore the most perfect edition extant.

"I take this occasion to recommend the public to test the excellence of Mr. Deming's translation, by comparing it with the French. No better exercise for learners could be devised.

C. P. BORDENAVE.

Professor of Languages."
